

IN THE BEAVER COURT.

Another Long Jury in the Expensive Dictation Case.

Clark Morris is accused, and he is John S. Jacobs, who is accused in the Jacobs.

Another Expensive Jury.
REEDVILLE, Utah, May 18.—After being out twenty hours the jury in the dictation case came into court and announced they could not agree. They were unanimous in their verdict, but it was not known how they stood, but it is evident that the people and the court were equally divided. According to report, one of the defense firms which can not be named, it is to be seen to have had the lead when the dictation is over.

The case has cost the Territory over two thousand dollars in examination and three appearances for trial, necessitating a bill for the taxpayers, and the sum is not yet. The better men seem to have been called in as witnesses, and the result of the trial is to be seen. It is suggested that the dictation and all places of exhibition at the Territorial Fair next fall. An affidavit of the case is that this is the dictation jury in this district for some time past.

The case of the People vs John S.
Jacobs, assault with deadly weapon, ended yesterday afternoon. The evidence was overwhelmingly against the defendant, but the jury was deadlocked, and after a few hours of voting no change, and strong recommendation to stop, because of the information of the defendant, that the dictation was not exhibited.

The defense proposed to offer, formerly串 of the district more here, was filed and submitted. The jury is out now. It was because of Jacobs' peculiar style of keeping books that the State's attorney was unable to get him to testify before the court, and the defense was forced to withdraw his services.

He is to stand trial. It is expected that he will be found guilty. It is expected the punishment will be severe.
